FAIR FIELD
JUNIOR SCHOOL

Dear Parents & Carers,

Thank you for booking onto Parents' Evening. If you have not yet done so please either book on the Gateway or ring the office to make an appointment. We have noticed that Google Classroom has enhanced its features and we now have the option of having a waiting room. Therefore, we will be utilising this service for our virtual parents evening as we recognise this is our most familiar platform. Hopefully your child has spoken about their Poppy Learning I Project (PLIP) on role models and have begun to think about who they might focus on. They can present their learning in any way they choose and on whoever they choose. Please see Google Classroom for more information. The projects are due in by the 21st October.

Miss Clancy and I are looking forward to spending Sunday with some of our Year 5 children in London, showing off their musical talents on their cornets. Next week we are also excited to announce that we have over 70 children signed up to attend the cross country. If your child is due to swim on this day, the cross country will supersede this and they will be provided with an extra session after half term to compensate for the time they missed. Children competing in cross country may wear their PE kits to school. If you offered to drive we would appreciate your support, however we have also booked a coach. We will leave school at circa 10.15am and return circa 11.45am.

Wishing you a relaxing weekend.

Mrs Goodwin & The Fair Field Team

Black History Month Celebrations

Over the course of this month the children will be learning about contributions and achievements of Black people throughout British history. They will be taking part in workshops where they will be making their own carnival costumes. These workshops will be facilitated by an established, well-renowned costume designer, who has been commissioned to projects linked to the Notting Hill Carnival for many years. Children will be provided with most of the materials they will need and we are grateful to the PTA for funding the project. We would appreciate if you could source your child old or cheap new white/grey/yellow canvas shoes. We understand these are available in Primark for £3. If possible, please can the children bring these in in a named carrier bag from Monday. Many thanks.

PTA Update

The PTA AGM went well last night and we were pleased to see a few new faces. Thank you to Alexa and Maria for stepping into the folds. I would also like to hugely thanks Angela Stephenson & Joe Godden for taking on the roles of Chair and Vice Chair respectively. Equally, thank you to Julie Krantz and Madalyn Bielfield for continuing in their roles of Treasurer and Secretary. We are also loyally supported by Louise Finn. The PTA update, detailing income and expenditure will come out next week. Thank you for all the fantastic support you give. We are collecting milk cartons in preparation for the Halloween disco if you can save some!

Squid Game

You may have read in the press this week about a Netflix series called 'Squid Game'. It has come to our attention that, despite the viewing age being set at 15+, some of the children have watched it and are mimicking the games played in the show. Nearly all episodes of the show contain violent and gruesome content and it is not suitable viewing for primary aged children. Parents will be informed if children are seen attempting to play these games.
