

ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC

London

Sunday 10th October 2021

Great Exhibition Road Festival: One World Brass

The Royal College of Music has teamed up with Brass Band England for an inspiring day of music making. Whether you're a budding brass musician, beginner, youth band player or contest bander, join us to take part in workshops, masterclasses, discussion and performances with top professional brass musicians, conductors, and workshop leaders. With the overarching festival theme of One World, the day will highlight that brass playing is for everyone, fully accessible and inclusive.

10-11am

Beginner Brass Buzz

AGE SUITABILITY: 6 -11 YEARS OLD

Are you a beginner brass player or interested in learning a brass instrument? Come and join us for an exciting hour of discovery and performance!

11.30am -2.30pm

Youth Band Blow

AGE SUITABILITY: CHILDREN ALREADY LEARNING A BRASS INSTRUMENT

An exciting set of workshops and performances to inspire the budding youth band brass musician looking to take their playing to the next level. Led by leading lights in the brass world.

3pm-4.30pm

Contest Banding Extravaganza

AGE SUITABILITY: ALL AGES

Come and listen to the band, be inspired by their big sound, dextrous agility, and tight ensemble. Participants in sessions 1 & 2 can book tickets to this final session to access the band performances and join in!

This final session of the day will also include the opportunity to take part in a Brass Band England band leaders' training session to discover more about inclusive learning pathways for band organisations.

Please follow this link to book via EVENTBRITE

Brass Bands
England

THE GREAT 2021
EXHIBITION
ROAD FESTIVAL