Fair Field News

Dear Parents & Carers,

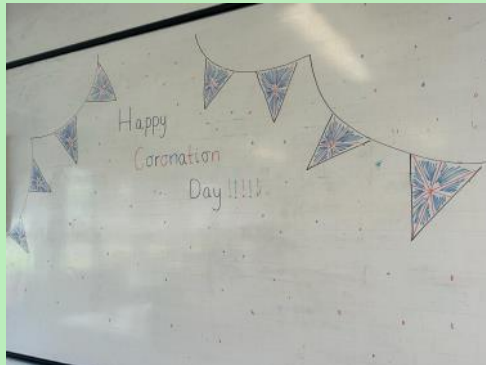

Today our King's Coronation celebrations included some amazing learning and a broad range of exciting and engaging activities. Children each made a commemorative porcelain plate; decorated the 'King's pants'; took part in a quiz; decorated biscuits; had their faces and nails painted; received visits from the police and fire service; released balloons and more! Thank you for the efforts in ensuring they looked the part too. Lunchtime was a big celebration in the style of a 'Royal tea' with some special visitors including our governors and the Chair of Aldenham Parish Council, Helen Jones, flags decorated the hall and a DJ on hand to provide entertainment and music. The day has been joyful and memorable. Thank you to FMS Recovery and all the staff for helping to make it possible.

Next week is KS2 SATs; our eldest children have been working so hard towards this important week in their primary education. They are well prepared and we know they will show everyone how brilliant they are. Finally, whatever you have planned during this historic Bank Holiday weekend, I hope you have a fabulous time!

Wishing you an enjoyable and relaxing break

Mrs Goodwin & The Fair Field Team
